

Additional services

Additional services are designed to be used mainly by existing customers, who already have the storage capacity contracted.

Using the additional services, customer can utilize the supplementary value on gas market and optimize the portfolio according to its needs.

Additional services and services supporting the storage capacity utilization or its part increase the liquidity on the gas market and contribute to its development and stabilization of gas price.

Favorite additional services

Day-Ahead service (DAS) – Additional injection or Additional withdrawal flow rate on interruptible basis

- DAS can be requested by increasing your nomination without additional formalities.
- Price is calculated based on the highest confirmed nomination for each hour in given day.

Transfer between gas stored accounts within storage

- Transfers within storage are realized based on the submitted announcement about transfer effective as of next day.

Transfer between gas stored account in POZAGAS storage and connected storage

- Transfers between POZAGAS storage and connected storage are realized based on the submitted request effective taking effect as of next day.

Cross border utilization of storage

- Customer receives within service keeping the record of the origin of injected gas, price for service is determined based on the highest hourly allocation in given day during the gas flow or during the gas transfer with change of gas origin from AT to SK and vice versa.

Other additional services

→ Individual unbundled services on firm and interruptible basis in form of unbundled Working Gas Volume, Injection and Withdrawal Flow Rate according to Rules of Operation.

→ Service of reporting the market participant's data according to REMIT regulation.

→ Transfer of rights and obligations from Gas Storage Contract.

→ Surrender of rights and obligations form Gas Storage Contract.